Tutors are vital to the success of the tutoring programs that they lead. The work directly with BEA Students either in one-on-one programs or a group learning setting.

Subject to the actual learning needs of the Students and program arrangements, Tutors may exercise discretion in multiple aspects on various levels.

Applicants for Tutoring roles should specify which subject (s) they wish to go for, and substantiate their volunteering interests with academic evidence.

Roles by subjects include:

- > Tutor (English)
- > Tutor (Math)
- > Tutor (French)
- > Tutor (Chinese)
- > Tutor (Spanish)
- > Tutor (Science)

For the best instruction results, Tutors turn their cameras on throughout a class. Therefore, their technology should support the delivery of a program.

Specifically, for language-learning programs, the to-be-learned languages are ideally the first languages of the Tutors.
