

BrookEdge Academy

Homework Support

This group of volunteers works through email and explains strategies to solve homework problems, typically in Math or Science. Sometimes, language grammar.

Volunteers receive questions from the Academy and reply to the Academy through emails. The support does not focus on the correct answer itself, but the explanations about how to arrive at that answer effectively.

Homework-Support Volunteers do not face BEA Students, but work only interfacing with the Academy.